

Tutorial One:

Week 3 (23-27 Aug) and Week 4 (30 Aug-3 Sept)

We have several tasks in the first tutorial, which is to in weeks 3 & 4:

- State with a brief introduction about how tutorials are to be conducted;
- Students are encouraged to introduce themselves to the class, while study groups for tutorial discussion and for term project are formed;
- Discussion within groups and respond to the questions;
- Exchange among groups on their answers to the questions.

Key questions for discussion:

1. What are the key lessons from the East Asian Miracle?
2. How is China's growth experience similar to or different from that of East and Southeast Asian economies?

Readings:

Lecture notes and class readings. Two additional readings (below). Other materials you find from the internet can also be used.

Jonathan Anderson, "China's True Growth: No Myth or Miracle," Far Eastern Economic Review, September 2006 (IVLE workbin);

Joseph E. Stiglitz, "Some lessons from the East Asian Miracle", The World Bank Research Observer 11 (2) (Aug 199): 151-177 (available through NUS' library E-Resources).

If you don't have time to read the whole paper by Stiglitz, focus on the following sections:

1. Pages 151-157
2. For Industrial Policies: What policies were pursued? (pages 151-152)
3. For Cooperation and Competition: page 13
4. For Growth with Equality: pages 167-169
5. For Export-Oriented Growth: pages 169-170
6. Pages 172-174
